

Implementing the SEND Arrangements: an Update

The new Code of Practice has been implemented from September 2014. The 'reality' of the new arrangements has had significant impact on provision and outcomes for schools, LAs, young people and parents/carers. This one-day course will allow school leaders and SENCOs to have an opportunity to be updated about SEND arrangements from a leading practitioner and help them further develop practical solutions for their own settings.

Participants will:

- understand the new arrangements and their implications for schools, young people and parents/carers
- clarify misconceptions relating to the code
- have an overview of necessary law and regulations associated with the Children's and Families Act (2014)
- learn about tried and tested practical solutions that work
